Arzu Kibris received "ERC Starting Grant"

European Research Council (ERC) grant is the most competitive and prestigious funding among the European Union support programmes. Arzu Kibris from Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences has been awarded by this prestigious grant with her project entitled 'Exposure to Political Violence and Individual Behavior'. It is the first ERC Starting Grant of Sabancı University in the field of Social Science and Humanities. There are two supported projects from Turkey in the field of Social Science and Humanities. Arzu Kibris's project is one of the first awarded one.

SU Gender and Women's Studies Forum has been approved as a Center of Excellence

SU Gender and Women's Studies Forum has been approved as a Center of Excellence. The new opportunities this restructuring will create, as well as the Center's goals and activities in the areas of education, research and social responsibility will be presented to the university community in greater detail through several meetings in the coming days.

All members and students of the university are invited to contribute to and benefit from the Center.

2015 Hrant Dink Memorial Workshop

The 7th Hrant Dink Memorial Workshop, focusing on the theme "Genocide of the Ottoman Armenians in Art, Theater, Cinema and Literature" took place in Minerva Palas on November 5-6, 2015, bringing together a diverse group of scholars, artists, film directors, NGO professionals, writers and activists from Armenia, Britain, France, Lebanon, Switzerland, Turkey and USA. The presentations and discussions centered around the literary, artistic and cinematic responses to the Armenian Genocide in its 100th anniversary, as well as raising questions about the making of the "canon" in these fields and the reproduction of silence and denial.
